■ Planning underway

"A Culture of Peace" is 2000 Canada Day theme

With just under three months to go, plans for Canada Day 2000 celebrations in Elk Point are already well underway. The Canada Day Committee met last Thursday, and chose "A Culture of Peace" as their theme in the United Nations' International Year for the Culture of Peace.

The UN has proclaimed the year, and feels it can mark the threshold of a new millennium in which war, violence, oppression and discrimination will yield to non-violence, tolerance, social equality, dialogue and solidarity as a way of life.

The Canada Day Committee felt the theme would lend itself to a celebration of the various cultures within the community and surrounding areas, which would spark numerous ideas for parade floats and stage entertainment.

Plans are already forging ahead for the Chamber of Commerce Pancake Breakfast and the Lions Club Parade.

Dwayne Vogel, who initiated the first ever Soap Box Derby last year, has details of the race and design specifications for the race vehicles all set to go, and is looking for volunteers to help stage the event.

Margaret White has again volunteered to spearhead the Craft Show, and the Christian Community Church has been given approval for their ever-popular pie sale.

Jos and Joan (Dolly) Hughes and their amazing Old English sheepdog, who entertained at the First Night Festival with their musical variety act, have been booked for a 40-minute portion of the afternoon stage show, and will be joined by a number of local acts. The committee also hopes to have a return visit by Popcorn the Clown.

The Lions Club is looking into hosting a beerfest and dance on the evening of July 1, and the Canada Day Committee has high hopes of ending Canada's 133rd birthday with a gala fireworks display.

Fundraising for the event is now underway, with the Canadian Heritage grant application sent in and letters to local sponsors going out in the near future. Marshall Kachmar and Dwayne Vogel have volunteered to help with the fundraising.

The Canada Day Committee meets again April 27, 7 p.m. at the FCSS Office, and would be happy to hear from anyone with ideas to help make the day a rousing success.

Crime Stoppers Business break-in Between Friday evening, March 31 and very early Saturday morning, an oil patch-related business in Elk Point was broken into by unknown suspect(s). The front office was searched and approximately $5000 cash was stolen. A window and some office equipment was damaged.

Anyone with information is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or the Elk Point RCMP Detachment at (780) 724-3829.

New Post Office officially opened

Mayor Ed Buck officiated at Friday's ribbon cutting ceremony to mark the grand opening of Elk Point's new Post Office.

Clint Schaefer of Canada Post said the new facility "was a long time coming" and thanked the people of the community for their patience with long waits for a box number, and then with outdoor mailboxes at the former office, and the staff for contending with the cramped and inadequate work space and for dealing with the customers' concerns.

That is all behind the staff and customers now, with the doors open on a facility "built for any future growth," Schaefer said. "We can take any growth Elk Point can throw at us." The old building "didn't give us the opportunity to expand. It was cramped and didn't have enough boxes." The new building was designed for anticipated growth for at least 5 to 10 years, and can expand the current rows of 1333 boxes even further into the processing area if required.

Schaefer said the new post office "reflects the image of the company. We're pretty proud of it." Canada Post has "Married up the image so that eventually, every post office, urban and rural, will look the same" except for size. "This is the fifth new building this year in my area," he added. Schaefer's area covers the province from Red Deer north to the NWT border.

Canada Post's new concept "allows us to merchandise our products. We are a retail business, and we have to meet or beat our competitors' prices." The new facility has room to display the collector coins, stamps and albums Canada Post offers for sale, as well as a full range of mailing supplies including envelopes, mailing cartons, wrap and tape. Schaefer said "the average individual probably didn't know we sold these products. We're looking forward to the community's support" of the product lines.

Postmistress Coral Tremblay says it's "just a joy to have the proper working facilities we've needed for so long. This year, we won't be looking at Christmas with dread." She says the move to the new premises went smoothly, and "everyone went out of their way to assist us." The boxholders were "more than cooperative" and most collected their mail prior to the move. "We pulled the mail from the old boxes at 5 p.m. and it was in the new boxes by 6." And, although there were approximately ten tubs of mail to move, "that was easy."

The new facility has ample room for sorting and processing mail, and even a hydraulic lift so mail can be delivered in wire cages handled by a pallet jack. The working area is bright and roomy, and Tremblay says "we no longer need to go on a diet to be able to fill the boxes," referring to the narrow corridor behind the boxes in the old post office. "And we've ordered a table for the box lobby," she added, noting that patrons had missed having a table to sort their mail.

The Grand Opening was a doubly special occasion for Canada Post employee Ed Bugera, who recently marked 25 years of selling stamps and sorting mail. Bugera started in 1975, when first class stamps were 17¢ and the Elk Point post office had just 600 boxes. He was presented with an engraved gold clock with a Canada Post logo and a hand-somely decorated cake to share with the Grand Opening well-wishers.

Individual disaster response: be prepared to cope

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

So often in life when disaster of any kind hits a community it is so easy to criticize or blame someone for what has happened. We may even go further and criticize or find fault with those who are trying to help us.

Like I said in last week's article, "no community is equipped to handle all the demands of a catastrophe." We need to help our community by preparing ourselves. "If you're unprepared for a disaster, it can matter your life. If you're prepared, you can tip the balance between being a victim or a survivor."

The Canadian Red Cross and Emergency Preparedness Canada has published a brochure which has some excellent suggestions in it for individual preparedness.

First of all, think of any special needs that someone in your family might have. Include any other items that your family would need. For example: babies/toddlers - diapers, bottled milk, toys, crayons and paper; other family members - prescription medication, extra eye glasses; and pets - dog/cat food (a pet carrying cage is good as well).

Emergency food and water kit You should have on hand at least a three-day supply of food and water. Choose ready-to-eat foods that your family likes. And select food that doesn't need refrigeration.

Emergency survival kit. In this kit you need to include the following: flashlight and batteries (in case the lights go out), radio and batteries (so you can listen to news bulletins), spare batteries (for radio and flashlight), first-aid kit, candles and matches/lighter, extra car keys and cash, important papers (identification for everyone, personal documents), food and bottled water, clothing and footwear (one change of clothes per person), blankets or sleeping bags (one blanket or sleeping bag per person), toilet paper and other personal supplies, medication, backpack/duffel bag (or something else to carry the emergency survival kit in, in case you have to evacuate), whistle (in case you need to attract someone's attention) and playing cards, games.

If a major disaster hits our community, be ready to evacuate. Yes, if the emergency is serious enough, you may be asked to leave your home and go to a nearby evacuation centre. In Elk Point, this could be the Pioneer Circle, the Elks Hall, one of the schools or the arena. When the police ask you to evacuate, leave immediately. Take your emergency survival kit with you. Listen to the radio and follow instructions from the local (Town of Elk Point) emergency officials. If you are instructed to do so, shut off water, gas and electricity. Wear clothes and shoes appropriate to conditions. Lock the house. Follow the routes specified by the officials.

Revised dates for Ag Summit regional meetings

By Paul Langevin, MLA
Lac La Biche - St. Paul

To accommodate an unexpectedly large response from the public over the regional meeting portion of the Ag Summit 2000, new dates have been set and more locations added to the regional meeting list.

The meetings will begin on April 4 in Drumheller. In total, 12 regional meetings will be held in various places around the province. All meetings are scheduled to take place from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. All participants are asked to pre-register to attend the regional meeting in their area by calling their local Alberta Agriculture district office.

Albertans not able to attend the regional meetings will also have a means to participate in Ag Summit 2000. An interactive portion on the Ag Summit 2000 web site will be opened by the end of March to allow anyone to share their opinions and ideas as part of the process. The Ag Summit web site can be found at www.agsummit.gov.ab.ca. Albertans can also participate by calling (780) 422-1799 (reach this number toll-free by first dialing 310-0000) and asking for a workbook to be sent out.

Regular updates on the Summit process and the results on the meetings will be made available on the web site.

In our constituency, the two closest meetings are in Glendon on Thursday, April 13 and in Vermilion on Friday, April 14 from 10:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Optometrist back from volunteer stint in Caribbean clinic

Dr. Kim Bugera, a 1991 graduate of F. G. Miller High School and the daughter of Ed and MaryAnn Bugera, recently returned from a ten day stint in the Caribbean.

By Lawrence Gleason
The Morinville Mirror

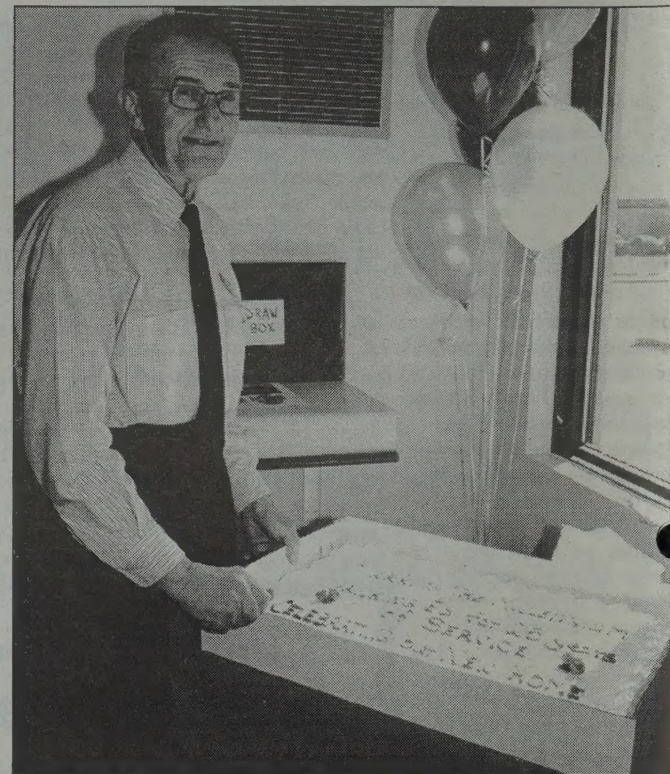

Morinville optometrist Dr. Kim Bugera has a new appreciation for the Canadian health care system and her own office equipment after treating up to 400 patients a day in remote island villages on the mountainous Caribbean island of Dominica.

The Caribbean island - not to be confused with the better known Dominican Republic - is located between the islands of Guadeloupe and Martinique.

Bugera and her husband, Dr. Peter Laansoo, also an optometrist, joined four other optometrists including Dr. Grant Balen of Barrhead, to work with the Canadian Vision Care charity eye project for ten days, February 19 to 27 on Dominica.

The doctors took with them several boxes of prescription eye glasses. "I don't know how many glasses we took with us, but it was boxes and boxes. We didn't dispense them all," Bugera said.

It was a volunteer trip for the six doctors who paid their own air fare and expenses.

Once on Dominica the doctors were often split up to cover as many villages as they could. Bugera said the island's Lions Club was a big help with members driving the doctors to the villages.

Roads were rocky and rutted and often the doctors had to get out and push their vehicle through tougher spots on the road, Bugera said.

In the villages people were "jam packed" waiting at temporary clinics, said Bugera.

Doctors saw up to 400 patients a day and set up anywhere they could, working with basic hand-held equipment, primarily a Canadian Vision Care provided retina scope and lens bar, enabling doctors to make a diagnosis and match a pair of eye glasses to the problem.

One patient came in carrying a Bible and told Bugera she hadn't been able to read it for years.

Bugera said patients who received glasses, "were so excited, they would hug you, they were so happy."

Patients with eye problems doctors were not able to fit eye glasses to had their prescriptions taken.

Prescriptions are given to the eye care programs at Alberta's Northern and Southern Institutes of Technology where students grind the prescriptions and the new glasses sent to Dominica.

During her ten days working the crowds of people waiting at the tiny clinics, Bugera saw first hand the results of the lack of regular eye care among the population.

Bugera said she saw advanced eye diseases among her patients there, diseases that would be readily treatable in Canada at an early stage.

Among the diseases were glaucoma, which results from high pressure inside the eye, and cataracts, which cloud the surface of the eye.

Bugera will have another opportunity to go on another Canadian Vision Care charity work project in two years.

Will she go?

"Absolutely," she said.

"They were long days and we were exhausted," said Bugera, but adds the whole experience was worth it.

"It really puts into perspective our health care system and how lucky we are to have the health care we do have."

Canadian Vision Care is a registered charity that has put together professional project teams to help about 10,000 people annually, and have been doing this work since 1981.

Clinics, operated by local hosts and volunteers, have been held in several countries including the Philippines, Guyana, Trinidad, Mexico, Jamaica, St. Lucia, Dominica, Guatemala and Honduras.

grand OPENING

New Tags offers much more than food and gas

More space, new product lines in exciting new store

Tags Convenience Store held the grand opening of their new Elk Point location last week, with Chamber of Commerce president Eugene Buck wielding the knife to slice a long, braided bread stick held by store owners Sharon, Maurice and Nigel Lafrance and Kandus Efford to officially open the handsome new business. Buck congratulated them on their new venture, which will be an asset to Elk Point's business district, and thanked the crowd in attendance on behalf of the Lafrance family, for being part of their special day.

Patrick Wilson and Gwilym Sjodin of The Grocery People were also on hand for the ceremony, and wished the Lafrances well in their new facility.

Grand opening guests filled the aisles, enjoying doughnuts and their choice of regular or one of six specialty coffees, entered their names for a number of draws and chatted with the owners and staff. Sharon carried around a huge sheaf of carnations, presenting one to each of the first 100 ladies on hand for the events grand opening.

The event continued right through the weekend, with specials each day, winding up with cake, refreshments and grand prize draws on Sunday.

Right next door, in a separate part of the building, a brand new sign marks the location of K & N Liquor, operated by Kandus and Nigel, which opened in December, in time to toast the Christmas season and the arrival of the year 2000. A good variety of stock, very well displayed, is finding favor with their customers, and they are also happy to cater to the liquid refreshment needs for various functions.

The gas station part of the operation received a major upgrade in the move. Now, four ultra-modern pumps offer diesel fuel and three grades of gasoline, all under a huge roof to protect customers from the elements. Maurice says the change "has done wonders for us" and points out a framed photo by Ron Onusko which shows a 30-ton crane lifting the 17-ton steel frame for the massive roof into place atop a frame sitting on 36" pilings which extend 20 feet into the earth. The area where the store is situated was originally a swamp, and this necessitated digging out the earth in the parking lot to a depth of four feet and filling it with a vast amount of packed gravel. Soil conditions also prompted the Lafrances to situate the store on a total of 32, 6" steel pegs, which were screwed into the ground to depths varying from 14 to 20 feet, for a much more solid base than the "floating slab" technique used in their previous store.

You can enjoy great food — FAST!

By Linda Fox, RD
Elk Point Health Centre

Foods for healthy eating can be quick and easy to prepare!

Active living leads to more energy and a feeling of well being.

Save time for family and friends by making time to plan, cook and enjoy meals together.

Taste and pleasure of food is paramount.

In today's fast paced society, you often may find yourself skipping meals, eating on the run or racing to put a meal together. Try these great tasting meal ideas and time-saving tips from the Dietitians of Canada!

Fast Meals

68% of weekday meals are on the table in less than 45 minutes. Try these hasty and healthy meal ideas!

■ Get up and going with this easy breakfast shake: blend together 1 cup of milk (or half milk and half yogurt), a ripe banana, 1/2 cup of fresh or frozen berries and sugar or honey to taste.

■ Toast an English muffin or bagel with a slice of cheese and tomato.

■ Toss up a quick meal-in-one salad. Start with some lettuce or cooked pasta, add small cubes of cheese, chopped cooked egg, chick peas, canned tuna or salmon.

■ Heat your favorite tomato sauce and add cooked shrimp, minced clams and chopped vegetables for an instant seafood pasta sauce.

Save Time!

■ Use multi-purpose dishes and bowls which can be used to cook, serve and refrigerate foods. The fewer the dishes to wash, the more time you'll have to do other things!

■ Cook extra rice or noodles. Add the leftovers to soup or use them in a casserole, salad, stir fry or fried rice for tomorrow night's dinner.

■ Freeze chopped onion and green peppers for quick additions to recipes.

■ Make double batches of recipes on weekends and freeze extras for another night's meal.

what's NEWS at the LIBRARY?

Check out the Library's fantastic new teen corner!

By Daphne Schnurer
Librarian

Check out our new and fantastic teen corner! Thanks to Alyssa Fry for her great artistry in putting it all together.

Also thank you to Home Town Grocers for the wonderful posters. Coming soon to our Teen Corner: a selection of CDs.

Some captivating reads from the Teen Corner include the latest Sweet Valley University series, World Almanac for Kids, Guinness World Book of Records 2000 (this is a truly awesome book). We also have a great selection of the latest teen magazines.

Other great new titles this week include: The Great Canadian Trivia Book - an amusing and informative book. The Carbohydrate Addict's Cookbook - 250 all new, low-carbohydrate recipes. Kathleen E. Woodiwiss' newest novel, "A Season Beyond a Kiss," a remarkable and exciting sequel to "The Elusive Flame."

Some great new titles for the kids include: Franklin Goes to the Hospital and three new titles from the Hello Reader Series. This series is just super for the reluctant or beginner reader.

FRIENDS OF MOZAMBIQUE are part of the United Church congregation.

Sunday School helps Mozambique

Elk Point United Church Sunday School is sending $300 in financial aid to the struggling people of Mozambique. On Sunday, April 2, the youngsters lined up to spell out the name of this country, each telling something about the country:

M is for Mozambique, an African country who for the first time was able to grow enough food to feed its 19 million people, before it was ravaged by severe flooding and almost everything was destroyed.

O is for Ocean. The Indian Ocean brings an average of 60 inches of rain to make crops grow. This year, cyclones poured over double the normal rainfall and brought winds of up to 350 km. per hour.

Z is for Zambezi and Limpopo Rivers that flooded for hundreds of miles over prime farmland.

A is for Africa where the country Mozambique is located. It is an agricultural country with beautiful beaches and an average temperature of 80° F.

M is for 2 million people who lost their families, their homes, their land and cattle and most important, their ability to survive.

B is for Bantu, the language in which these people cried out as they clung to treetops praying to be rescued.

I is for International Community, of which Canada is part, who sent food, clean water and clothing to these poor, homeless, starving people.

Q is for quick medical aid, needed so the survivors don't die from drinking polluted water.

U is for YOU and ME who can open our hearts to help these families.

E is for EVERYONE. Everyone is part of God's family so we are helping our brothers and sisters in Mozambique today.

Now the rest of the congregation can assist those in other lands. Items from an original watercolor painting to a load of gravel, have been donated for a silent auction to be held in conjunction with the Church's Spring Supper on Tuesday, April 11, with all the proceeds going to Mission and Service.

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(never known to fail)

Oh, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary I place this prayer in your hands (three times). Say this prayer three consecutive days and then you must publish it and it will be granted to you. LL.

Remembering Dr. F. G. Miller

Your reminiscences are needed

The Elk Point Historical Society has been working with Dr. F. G. Miller's memoirs, and they are now in family members' hands for consideration for possible publication in the fall. In order to give the writings greater scope, the Society is seeking individuals to write about past remembrances of both Dr. Miller and Dr. Ross. The stories of the two men are legion.

It is hoped that the stories will be in good number and the reward will be their inclusion whenever possible in the final publication of the book. Stories may be mailed to the Historical Society at Box 967, Elk Point, AB, TOA 1A0.

"I remember the time we were going to Vermilion and were crossing on the ferry on the North Saskatchewan and Doc Miller was crossing, too. My Dad told him I was suffering with a bad toothache. Well, the next thing I remember, I was on my back on the good doctor's car fender and..."

UFA sales up 3.7%

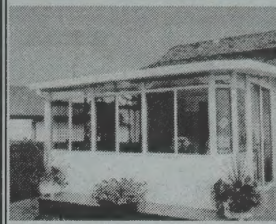

Total sales for United Farmers of Alberta Co-operative Limited in 1999 were $610 million, an increase of 3.7% over the prior year. According to reports from UFA delegate Walter DeSilva, who held an Advisory Council meeting in Elk Point on March 22, these sales, which match UFA's all time record, were achieved in a very difficult business environment.

Earnings before patronage allocation and income taxes were $13.5 million. As a result of these earnings, the organization declared a $9 million patronage dividend which will result in an estimated $6 million cash pay out. Cash returned to members over the past five years totaled $56 million.

Members' equity at $154 million represented a strong 60.6% of assets, which totaled $254 million.

UFA, one of Alberta's largest farm supply co-operatives with over 100,000 active members, operates 34 farm supply stores and 119 petroleum facilities as well as the most widely distributed cardlock network in the province.

Home Owners Wanted

Alberta's Largest Sunroom Dealer requires homeowners in various areas of Alberta to participate in a new marketing program to help promote sales of our 3 or 4 season sunroom systems.

If you qualify, we will make your home the showplace of your neighbourhood at a surprisingly low price.

Storm wins League Final "B"

By Doug Bassett
Review Sports

While the rest of the minor hockey teams were home in bed, the Midget Girls Storm were up bright and early Saturday morning, traveling to Cold Lake to play in the year end League Final. The Storm, after winning last week over Vermilion, captured third spot in the league. This would have been great, except that if they had lost that game, instead of finishing third, they would have finished in fourth spot and could have slept in for a couple more hours, and played the second place team, Vermilion, at 10:30 a.m., instead of the first place team, St. Paul, at 8 a.m. The Storm never played too badly but still lost to first place St. Paul, Ashley Hebblethwaite scoring the only goal for the Storm. St. Paul, after finishing first over all in the regular season, then went on to win the A side of the tournament, winning the league banner and trophy. Just for the record, three of the better players on the St. Paul team got their start in Elk Point, playing with the Storm before a girls' team was formed in St. Paul. One of them, Kendra Stasyk, is going to college next year with a hockey scholarship.

The Storm now had some time to kill, with lunch, then the skills competition, they still had over three hours until their second game at 5:30 p.m. It makes for a very long day, leaving home at 6:30 a.m. and not returning until almost 10:00 p.m. What baffles me is how the first place team has to play at 8 a.m. Don't you usually get some reward for finishing first? Then the A Final was played before the B final, does this make sense?

Anyway, the Storm then met Cold Lake in the B final, but it wasn't an easy game. No score in the first period, it was half way through the second period when Cold Lake scored to give them the lead, but the Storm tied the game soon after on a goal by Megan Proskiwi. Then into the third, Cold Lake pulled ahead once more, and as the Storm watched the time tick down, it started to look like their season was over, but with four minutes left in regulation time, Danielle Cadrun tied the game at two, where it remained until the end of regulation time, sending it into overtime.

After five minutes of sudden death overtime, where the Storm had to kill off a penalty, the game was still tied at two. Now for a five woman shootout. One shooter each, no score. two shooters each, no score, three shooters each, no score, then Alyssa Fry scored to give the Storm the lead, but Cold Lake also scored to tie it again. Then Brett Hahn picks the top corner, scoring for the Storm and the Storm has the lead. The last shot for Cold Lake, Joanne "JoJo" deMoissac shuts the door, the Storm winning. The girls race onto the ice and pile on JoJo. A tough season for the Storm, but the girls capped it off with a big victory, winning the B event.

Not only did the Storm win the B event, they really cleaned up on the skill competition, Joanne "JoJo" deMoissac winning the best goalie, stopping the most shots, Kali Cousins winning first place for the most goals scored on shots on four different goalies, Alyssa Fry winning first in the most accurate shot, hitting the holes in the target four times out of six attempts, the Storm four woman relay team of Kali Cousins, Alyssa Fry, Ashley Hebblethwaite and Megan Proskiwi winning the fastest time around the rink of one minute and 18 seconds, then the same four women team winning the stickhandling event with the fastest times through the pylons carrying a puck.

It was another sad day for myself, the last minor hockey game for veteran player Jena Bassett, who started the season as a centre, but has been playing on defence since the start of the Provincial tournament, and recently started wearing the captain's jersey. Jena, a strong skater from many years of figure skating, has her own stride that was very distinguishable, but she helped the team in many ways, a strong two way player who couldn't be intimidated, a team leader, and I'm sure the Storm will miss her next year. know her dad will!

But, the future is looking really good for the Storm, who should have a stronger team next season, eight girls could be returning, along with seven very talented pee-wee girls moving up, who already have been playing with the Storm and have not been one bit out of place.

And so another season draws to an end, the ice plant was shut down on Thursday, two weeks from now the windup banquet, then what? Let's play ball!
